

Issue 1 2009

YOU

inspirationals

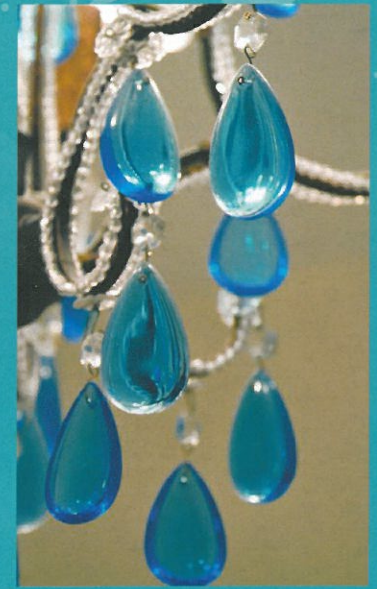

Complimentary
seasonal bouquet offer
see inside for details

No surgery
just artistry

Expert Rhinoplasty Right on the nose

The facelift has had a facelift

Reader offers: Everyone could benefit from £500 worth of savings, see inside.

Escape to the Country with a modern twist

The pretty village of Bray on Thames features a wealth of attractive picture postcard properties, sporting activities, nearby places of interest such as Henley and Cliveden and arguably some of the finest dining in the country.

It is here that culinary alchemist; Heston Blumenthal put his Michelin star restaurant, The Fat Duck into the top 'must visit' eateries. Gourmands will enjoy the Michelin-starred Waterside Inn where Chef Patron, Alain Roux, delivers stunning food and, for the sweet toothed diner, some of the finest desserts. For those who adore a taste of Italy, then 'Caldesi in Campagna' is a must and the 14th century Hinds Head and Crown Inn pubs with their home cooked dishes should not be left out.

A visit to this food fest and rural idyll would be best complemented by a stay in one of four gorgeous hideaway retreats available to rent with Bray Cottages.

These quintessentially English dwellings all have a contemporary twist oozing character and luxury. Guests could enjoy the privacy of a beautiful heritage cottage, fondly named Christmas. The charm and intimacy of the living room, character beams and contemporary furniture really make this a hidden treasure. Perhaps a Tudor cottage of some 180 years old is somewhere you could happily wind down. Cheekily called Tiggers' Cottage, this can be hired as a one or two bedroom retreat. The spacious kitchen is a dream where you can dine overlooking the rose and herb gardens, unless you are out enjoying the delights of the local restaurants. Or perhaps you would prefer Bray House, a 3 bedroom party house, ideal for celebrating that special occasion. To stay here in Bray is a truly unique experience creating just the right environment for your escape to the country.

For more information call 01628 583505 or visit our website at www.braycottages.com